1. Please describe fully the nature and scope of the project or study in terms of:

- (a) whether it is basic research, a popularization of basic research, or intended to assist those who disseminate Salesian thought;
- (b) what contribution it is expected to make to Salesian Studies;
- (c) how the project is to be accomplished;
- (d) the probable length of time needed to complete the project.

Priority consideration will be given to those proposals that clearly and convincingly demonstrate a broader and more universal appeal. (You may attach a separate sheet for this purpose.)

*It is assumed that the person whose name appears on the application will serve as project director or principal investigator, who must always be an Oblate of St. Francis de Sales.

2. In the light of its nature and scope, please indicate how the project will be effectively evaluated.

3. Have other sources of funding been investigated? If yes, which source(s)? How successful have these inquiries been?

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

4. What is the probability that funds from other sources will be forthcoming in pursuance of the project beyond its first year? Identify the source and amount that is firmly committed or that can reasonably be expected.

5. How much money is needed from:

ICSS Fund	Other Source(s)
1st Year $ _____	$ _____
2nd Year $ _____	$ _____
3rd Year $ _____	$ _____

6. Please provide an itemized project budget, including such things as travel, supplies, consultant fees, etc. All items over $100.00 must include a justification.

Please submit your application—together with any supporting materials, e.g., bibliography, letters of endorsement, etc.—to the Chair of the International Commission for Salesian Studies, via email: Joseph.Chorpenning@gmail.com.
